From the village blacksmiths to the watermill...

Shown smaller than actual size of 1-1/4" high.

A Romantic Country Village at your Fingertips

The Village School

Imagine a village baker shop so small, you can place it on your finger. A school house no larger than the end of your finger. And a castle the size of a thimble! Yet each one so intricate, you can clearly see the stones and roof shingles ... and each little window pane.

That's the magic of Country Village Thimbles, a collection that advances the art of miniaturisation. Slip each thimble over your finger and admire a level of detail so fine, it could only be achieved with a special sculptor's blend of resins and porcelain.

From the flower boxes in each of the gatehouse's eight windows to the stone stairway leading to the blacksmith's living quarters, each thimble is sculptured and hand-crafted with painstaking care. And just imagine the size of the brush used to paint each exquisite detail! The subtle tones in the stone walls and the stained glass of the windows of the village church. The pale green tiled roof and the caramel coloured shutters of the old school house. And the tree growing up the side of the watermill. All flawlessly hand-crafted and hand-painted to exacting standards.

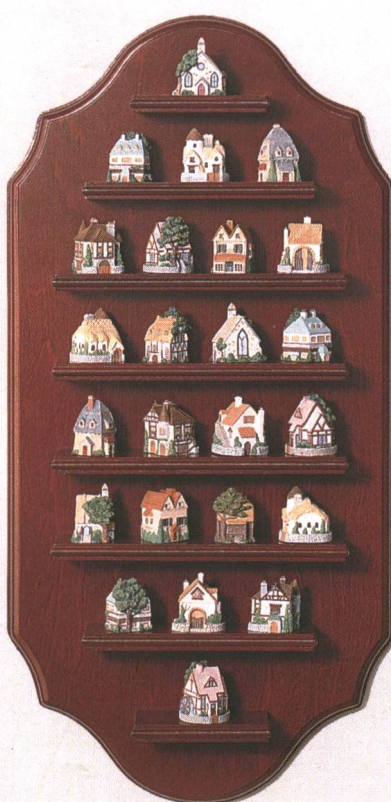

Commissioned by Princeton Gallery, this is the only collection of its kind. There is a stately Tudor-style manor house and a lamp-lit pub, a farm house complete with thatched roof, and even a beautiful little village hall.

They're all here — every fascinating little cottage, house and building that met an English villagers need — from the carpenter's to the cooper's ... from the library to the village church. Enjoy your view of the entire village when all twenty-four buildings fill your handsome wall display. This distinctive collection will command the attention of all those who see it in your home.

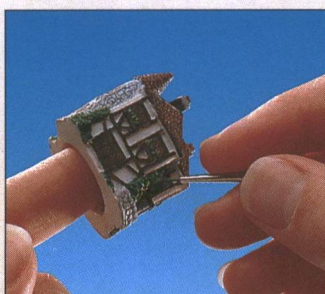

You can build your collection conveniently and affordably — you will receive three country village thimbles

The Stable

The custom wall display is 18 1/4 inches high and 9 1/4 inches wide.

Each tiny detail is meticulously painted by hand

The House that Windsor built

The House of Windsor has survived over three-quarters of a century, through wars, economic and social revolution, tabloid scandals and, more recently, the tragic destruction of Windsor Castle. But with the recent separation of Prince Charles and Princess Diana is the future of the British monarchy uncertain?

This programme tells the story of the Royal Family from the creation of the House of Windsor in 1917 to Queen Elizabeth's 40th anniversary of accession in 1992. How have they coped with the inevitable problems of living in the public eye? The House of Windsor shows on Thursday 25 February at 5pm and is repeated on Royal Sunday on 28 February at 7pm, on The Discovery Channel.

Other programmes on Royal Sunday include Wilderness, Elizabeth R, Prince Charles: A Monarch in Waiting, Free Fall and The Romanov Inheritance.

Edward – a sharp act to follow

Edward Scissorhands, a Movie Channel premiere, Sunday 7 February, at 7pm definitely deserves a top spot in the Pick on Cable this February as a delightful and magical fairytale and yet such a sad one. Johnny Depp stars as the misunderstood Edward, a sad young man with 8" scissors for hands, and Winona Ryder, the beautiful girl who slowly learns to love him. If your 'cockles need warming' this month, this is a film not to be missed.

DIANA: HER TRUE STORY

Based on Andrew Morton's sensational biography of the Princess of Wales, and drawn from exclusive interviews with family members and intimate personal friends of the Princess of Wales, Diana: Her True Story re-creates the dramatic events of the most talked about royal marriage of modern times. Starring Serena Scott Thomas as Diana and David Threlfall as Charles, this two-part mini series starts on Sunday 14 February at 8pm and Part II plays on Sunday 21 February, 8pm, only on Sky One.

It's a dog's life

A chihuahua threatened by a dog-napping pelican, a poodle with a penchant for wearing women's clothes and a bulldog that headbutts the TV?

It seems a dog's life is fuller and more bizarre than we could have imagined. And some owners have as many quirks and fetishes as their four-legged friends!

This Discovery special is a hilarious look at the lives of some very wacky woofers and their equally eccentric owners. The star of the show is Fugly, the most delinquent dog in Australian history, with more than 100 arrests on his record. His canine capers have cost his owner thousands of dollars in fines. There are those who love dogs and there are those who find them a menace and a nuisance. All of them have their say in The Wonderful World of Dogs, Wednesday 10 February at 4pm (repeated on Friday 12 February, 7pm).

Stars from Discovery's special take a bow (wow!)

*Bare your soul on MTV's
Valentine weekend*

If you're ready to take the plunge and pledge true, undying love to your partner forever, why not make that proposal an unforgettable one on MTV's Valentine weekend.

Starting on Saturday 13 February, Richie Rich (left) hosts a weekend of smoochie soulful songs to get you in that 'luurving kinda' mood as he features some of the greatest soul singers of all time.

Sunday could be the day to pop the question when you'll have the chance to request your favourite soul tracks. You can find full details on how to make song requests and how to leave your Valentine's message on the MTV Text service. Single 'souls' will love

MTV's Soul weekend too. Switch on between 8am Saturday and 6.30pm on Sunday.

In our competition this month, we've got together with MTV to offer you the chance of winning one of three pairs of tickets to see the new king of soul, Michael Bolton. Following the success of his recently released album, Timeless, Michael is touring the UK this

May and we will have tickets for the 18th, 19th, 21st or 22nd May dates at Wembley. All you have to do is answer the question below and send it to Linda Crouch, Ticket Quiz, Videotron, Videotron House, 11-29 Belmont Hill, Lewisham, SE13 5AU by 1 March 1993.

THE FAMOUS 'Who Shot JR' episode had 41 million US viewers glued to their sets, then the largest ever audience for a single TV programme. Larry Hagman as the slimy oil millionaire became the man people in 86 countries loved to hate. Why? Read on . . .

- At 16 he shot his favourite horse because it would not perform as he wanted.
- JR found wife Sue Ellen (played by Linda Gray) too lady-like in bed and sought excitement elsewhere. His secretary Julie Grey was conquest number one. Sue Ellen's sister Kristin Shepard then became pregnant by him. Affairs ensued with public relations officer Leslie Stewart, singer Afton Cooper, oil rival Holly Harwood, model Mandy Winger, and so on.
- In business JR was particularly unscrupulous, specialising in the vindictive double-cross.
- Murder was also means to an end for the spiteful tycoon. Kristin lived to rue the failure of her two bullets to kill JR when he returned to drown her in the Ewing swimming pool.
- JR and Sue Ellen divorced and remarried. She was daft enough to believe the two-faced slime-bucket when he said he would never look at another woman. Is the Pope Catholic? Sue Ellen was soon driven to drink – again. ■

The House of Windsor

Discovery,
Thursday 25th 5.00pm

AFTER A YEAR in which royal woes were rarely out of the headlines and the television news bulletins, the Discovery Channel is putting the monarchy into perspective with a look at The House of Windsor. The dynasty has survived wars, economic and social revolution and tabloid scandals over three-quarters of a century. Whether the Charles-Di split is its crowning disaster remains to be seen but Discovery's programme gives a new view of the family by telling the story of the royals from the creation of the House of Windsor in 1917 to Queen Elizabeth's 40th anniversary of accession in 1992. ■

Loco over Locane!

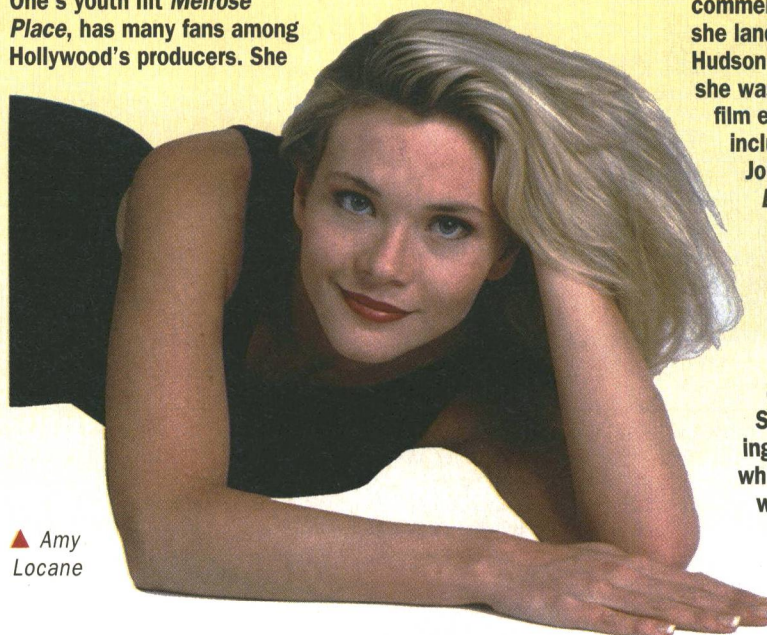

Melrose Place

Sky One,
Thursdays 8.30pm

AMY LOCANE, the most striking presence in Sky One's youth hit Melrose Place, has many fans among Hollywood's producers. She has recently finished School Ties directed by Robert Mandel, who says of her: 'She's lovely but the simplicity of her look is a little deceptive. Suddenly there are all these layers and mysteries about her that make her so watchable.' The 20-year-old New Jersey girl got into showbiz at the age of 12 after a photographer sent pics of her to an agent. TV commercials followed before she landed a role in Hugh Hudson's Lost Angels when she was 16. She has made a film every year since then, including one for director John Waters called Cry Baby, in which she appeared opposite teenage heart-throb Johnny Depp. Sky One viewers can currently enjoy her as the manipulative, over-the-top, Deep South bombshell staying in Melrose Place while seeking fame as – what else? – an actress in Los Angeles. ■

Holly's hot Country

Country Music Television

Country music videos, seven days a week,
24-hours a day

'I THINK COUNTRY is really becoming the "hot" music of the 1990s,' says CMT Europe star Holly Dunn. 'It's like the music I grew up with in the 1970s, a sort of socially conscious thing.'

Without doubt, the world's current economic problems are receiving the earnest attention of Country music videos like Travis Tritt's Lord Have Mercy on the Working Man, Sawyer Brown's Cafe on the Corner, and A Street Man Named Desire by the Pirates of the Mississippi, all of which deal with the problems of repossession, job loss and homelessness.

'It's the music of the people,' says Ricky Skaggs, whose blend of bluegrass and country sparked country's resurgence in the 1980s.

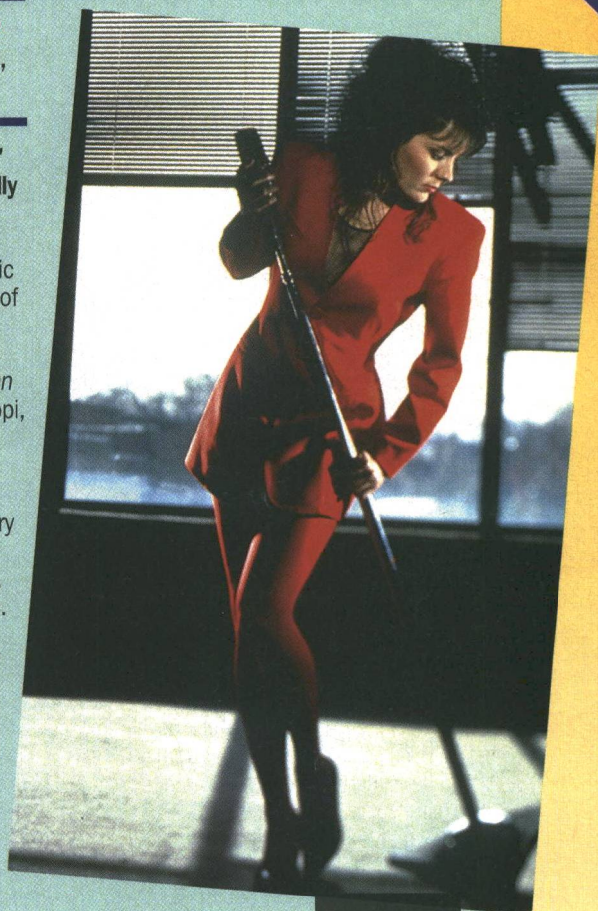

'It's heartland music, it's emotional music, it's poor man's music, it's work man's music. That's the reason people relate to it, they hear somethin' in there that reminds them of their life.'

But even on video Love, it seems, springs eternal. While many Country videos are portraying life's harsher side, Holly Dunn's writing has been described as showing 'a pre-occupation with matters of the heart', her music scattered with visions of love gone right, love gone wrong or love simply gone up in flames.

'I've had four Number One records and three of them have had "Love" in the title,' says Holly.

Ricky Skaggs can currently be seen on CMT Europe singing If You Don't Count the Cost, while Holly Dunn can be seen performing I Laughed Until I Cried and the sexy, walking-after-midnight hipshot strut As Long as You Belong to Me. ■

Nadia and Robert Xposed!

Xposure

Sky Movies Plus, Fridays
5.30pm; Movie Channel
Saturdays 6.00pm

XPOSURE is an exciting cinema magazine show produced for Sky Movies Plus and The Movie Channel.

The programme offers a fresh and youthful perspective on all aspects of the current cinema scene, with big name interviews with actors and directors, festival reports, live phone-ins, up-to-the-minute movie news all adding to its vibrant half-hour line-up.

The show takes cinema reporting out of the studio and on to the street, where hosts Nadia de Lemeny and Robert Brydon (right) report from locations relevant to the week's main topics, bringing the show closer to the cinema-going public and allowing them a chance to express their opinions.

Scheduled for filming in Los Angeles this month, the show will be covering the run-up to the Oscars, so viewers should watch out for more set reports and studio visits than ever.

In addition to new cinema releases, Xposure also previews forthcoming highlights on Sky Movies Plus and The Movie Channel, and is produced by the same team responsible for the distinctive look with which viewers to Sky movie channels are now familiar. ■

Princess of Wails!

Andrew Morton's throne-rocking book, 'Diana: Her True Story', portrayed the Princess of Wales as miserable and lonely before the sad announcement of her separation from Prince Charles. The book has now been dramatised and can be seen on Sky One on Sunday 14th and Tuesday 16th (7.00pm to 9.00pm). Here the series' stars discuss how they feel about playing two of the most famous people in the world today . . .

SERENA SCOTT THOMAS is Princess Diana

Serena has appeared in 'Poirot' and 'The Guilty' and has the leading role in 'Harnessing Peacocks', which can be seen on TV later this year. She is the sister of Kristin Scott Thomas.

“I FOUND MYSELF having dreams about Diana. When we were up in Cheltenham we did three walkabout scenes in one day with all the crowds shouting and the photographers clicking away and I thought, Crikey, this is unbearable. It's amazing what the Royal Family does, the endless tours, having to smile all the time, people dying for your attention.

My agent phoned and said they wanted to see me for the part of Diana and I burst out laughing, saying, "Don't be silly, I don't look a bit like her." But they didn't care about me not being a lookalike. I had 10 days to prepare for the part. It was a rush job and it was tricky because I had to go from age 16 to 31. We had three wigs for the different looks. I didn't try to imitate her voice because they [the producers and director] told me not to. They said it wasn't important and there really wasn't time. I had the different wigs and something like 106 different changes of costume, which all had to be fitted. It was really flat out for two months.

For me, it was not important to imitate Diana but to try to emulate her from the inside out. It is very difficult when you are playing a character that is alive because everybody has their opinion and impression of them. You're always going to be criticised by people saying, "Oh, that's not very like her." But I was more interested in the emotional and psychological side of it. Anyone who has had difficulties like bulimia and having one parent don't tend to be very emotionally balanced. There is a great need for love and affirmation and to be told they are all right. So I suspect that with Charles's engagements and his upbringing

▲ In the hot seat: the real Prince and Princess

he didn't know how to respond to that. That's the feeling I get. Diana is not the wounded victim in this story. She also screams and shouts. It's not all Poor Diana, Horrible Charles.

It's a sad story but it is very down-to-earth. Everybody will be able to identify with it and say, My God, I know how that feels. To see this couple having an argument like everybody has will demystify the Royal Family. I feel more respectful for them now and sympathy for them because they are human and they have to live this extraordinary life.”

DAVID THRELFALL is Prince Charles

Award-winning Royal Shakespeare Company actor who has been seen recently with Sean Connery in 'The Russia House' and Harrison Ford in 'Patriot Games'

“WHEN I WAS approached to play Charles I looked on it as just another job. I didn't find it daunting. I am not a renowned Royal watcher but I tried to get inside their world. The difference is that it is such a high profile part and everyone has an opinion about Prince Charles. Getting public figures and seeing how they behave in private is what is interesting, as any decent dramatist will agree, and that is what we have here, together with a certain amount of imagination.

I don't think that I or the film-makers are doing anything to worsen the situation that the monarchy now finds itself in. It's a bit like playing Princes or Kings in a Shakespeare play. If we could go back a few hundred years I'm sure the results would have been the same in any arranged marriage through the centuries of English history. It's just that they didn't have Andrew Morton or the tabloid press who had access to the people around the Court as happened here. I don't see what all the fuss is about.

I had all of 10 days to prepare so I spent the time watching videos and talking to people who could help my portrayal. My natural speech is nothing like Charles's but I have a good ear and was able to do a good copy of his voice and inflections. My resemblance to Charles on screen is a coincidence. I did my best to understand what it would be like if I were Charles. What it would be like if you were used to people opening doors, if you were used to not carrying money around with you. I think his biggest mistake was marrying somebody who became more popular than he was. It seemed to trigger something in him. That's my perception of it.”

I'M A BIG fan of 21 Jump Street - especially Johnny Depp. I only started to receive cable at the start of this year and I would love to see 21 Jump Street from the very beginning. Is there any chance of it being repeated from the first series onwards? Even if it was shown very late at night I'd be thrilled.

● Repeats? No. But there is a new 21 Jump Street series due to begin next year.

Geraldo returno?

AS AN AVID Geraldo viewer I sat down to watch my favourite talk show host and I was most annoyed to find that it had been taken off the air.

I decided to glance through my new Cable Guide only to find that Geraldo was gone from the Sky One listing.

Please will you let me know if the series will be shown in the very near future.

● Sky One has no plans to bring back Geraldo at present.

Good ol' Country

MY LOCAL CABLE company (Coventry Cable) has just added CMT to its schedule. I would like to congratulate it on a great service and some excellent videos.

T Hough, Foleshill, Coventry

I AM VERY pleased that the cable network is finally broadcasting a music channel that a lot of country music fans have been waiting for. When I get home I watch CMT between 7.30-9.30pm on week nights and really enjoy it. The majority of my friends and I would appreciate it greatly if CMT would play more of K D Lang's videos.

J Gillespie
Thorton Heath, Surrey

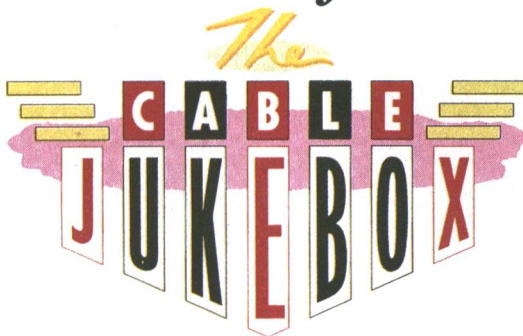

I AM 15 years old and I really love watching CMT. It has lots of great songs and artists. Alison Krauss and Union Station's Heartstrings and Tanya Tucker's Two Sparrows in a Hurricane are my favourites.

WRESTLING

Who's hot and who's not in the WWF
- John Greenfield reveals all!

Wrestling Week

Don't miss the Royal Rumble exclusively on Sky Sports on Monday 1st at 6.00pm. WWF action can also be seen at times listed below. Live cricket or football may alter these so check our listings (starting page 48) or the Sports Diary (starting page 172).

SATURDAY Sky One:

5.00pm. Sky Sports: 11.30am; 7.00pm.

SUNDAY Sky Sports

1.00pm. MONDAY Sky Sports: 6.05pm.

THURSDAY Sky Sports 6.05pm. FRIDAY Sky One 9.30pm. ■

Hello, wrestling fans. Out there in the harsh world of professional wrestling the WWF is still dominating the news.

Changes are occurring that are causing concern to fans young and old. Within the last month we have seen VIRGIL, the MOUNTIE, TITO SANTANA, ANIMAL and JIM DUGGAN all apparently become disenchanted with the WWF circuit. And all of that is hot on the heels of the ULTIMATE WARRIOR and the BRITISH BULLDOG also falling out with the WWF.

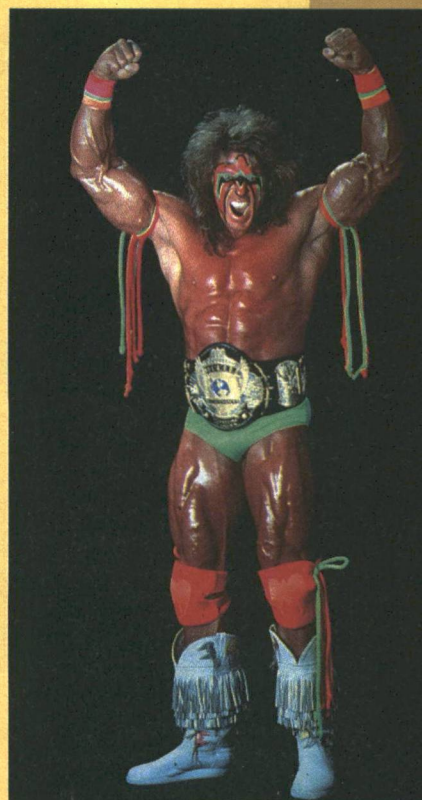

But all is not as black as it may appear. WWF promoters are hard at work recruiting new talent and some old fan favourites. As I reported last month SCOTT and RIC STEINER have been in negotiations to join the WWF and there is also talk of ex-WCW heavyweight champion STING being approached. Is the WWF recruiting WCW wrestlers or just out to rock the boat. Well, the WWF has rescheduled their 1993 UK visit to February ahead of the WCW March visit.

WWF star RANDY SAVAGE has been UK-based for several weeks while he works with TV personalities to promote the WWF. Sadly, the MACHO MAN has lost his sparkle since his divorce from ELIZABETH (aka Miss Elizabeth the First Lady of the WWF). However, WWF fans were overjoyed to see this flamboyant star making public appearances.

The WWF's current tour on America's East Coast has seen fan favourite MARTY JANNETTY v SHAWN MICHAELS on most cards. Jannetty is in dazzling form, chalking up victory after victory.

Those of you who, like me, watch all the TV taped shows will know that what we see is some four to six weeks old. I have it on good authority that WWF bad boy 'PAPA SHONGO' (David Wright) is to make a comeback. His contract originally expired in October and was not renewed.

Ex Legion of Doom star HAWK has teamed up with Japan's top heavyweight SUZUKI FUGIAMA to form the New Road Warriors tag team. They are competing in the All Japan Wrestling Federation. ■

Stars of Dance

FORGET THE Chippendales, the sexiest men on the box are The Guys Next Door. The show brings half an hour of uninterrupted dance, music, videos and comedy sketches.

The stars of the show are Eddie, the lean dance machine; Bobby the hilarious New York comedian; Patrick, the cool, laid back singer; Damon, whose claim to fame is that he danced with Madonna; and Chris, the acrobatic rock'n'roll heartthrob. ■

CHICKS CHANNEL CHASE UPDATE

IN CASE YOU haven't heard already, The Children's Channel has teamed up with ChildLine, the free national helpline for children in trouble or danger, to help them raise much-needed money to reach their goal of answering all the telephone calls they receive.

Michael Winsor, presenter on The Children's Channel, has been out and about finding out how schools, youth clubs and companies all over the country have been raising money to sponsor chicks.

And what with people eating two pounds of brussels sprouts in one go, devouring plates of peas and sweetcorn topped with custard and ketchup, holding school mufti days and Rally Cross Grands Prix, all to raise money for ChildLine, things are really happening for the Chicks Channel Chase.

Don't forget to watch The Children's Channel every weekend for updates on how the appeal is doing.

Your most wacky ideas for fundraising could be seen on TV, so write in to The Children's Channel with your mad, money-raising antics and a film crew could be knocking at your door. ■

Identikit of The Bill

A rough guide to the drama that has become one of the biggest hits on UK Gold

THE BILL HAS its roots in a one-off drama called Woodentop, which was part of an experimental Thames series from the early 1980s that tried out different ideas with series potential. Woodentop was broadcast in 1983 and was a critical hit.

Three series of 12 one-hour instalments of The Bill started with an episode called Funny Ol' Business - Cops and Robbers in 1984. It switched to its twice-weekly half-hour format in 1988.

The stories currently being revisited by UK Gold date from early 1989. ■

NO-NONSENSE DETECTIVE Frank Burnside (actor Christopher Ellison, above) is famed for his Burnside-isms. When asked what he thought of low-alcohol lager, for example, he sneered: 'They should put it back in the horse.' And when he was asked what to charge a vociferous woman with, he said: 'Possession of an offensive mouth.' ■

EVERY STORY IS TOLD through the eyes of the police. Viewers never see crimes being planned by villains or accidents taking place, only how the Sun Hill characters deal with the incidents once they have happened. ■

THE BILL is recorded in a former wine warehouse in South London. The building's front porch doubles as Sun Hill's entrance, though the blue lamp is taken down when shooting is over to avoid the public confusing it with the real thing. This has not always worked: one old lady tried to hand in a stray pup at 'Sun Hill'. There are no 'sets' at Sun Hill, no TV studio rooms with an invisible fourth wall. Lightweight cameras make their operators very mobile, which gives The Bill its fly-on-the-wall feel. ■

THE BILL is also a top-rated series in Australia and New Zealand. It has been shown in Bahrain, Barbados, Bulgaria, China, Greece, Holland, Hong Kong, Italy, Jamaica, Kenya, Malaysia, Norway, Ireland, Saudi Arabia, Russia and Zimbabwe, among others. ■

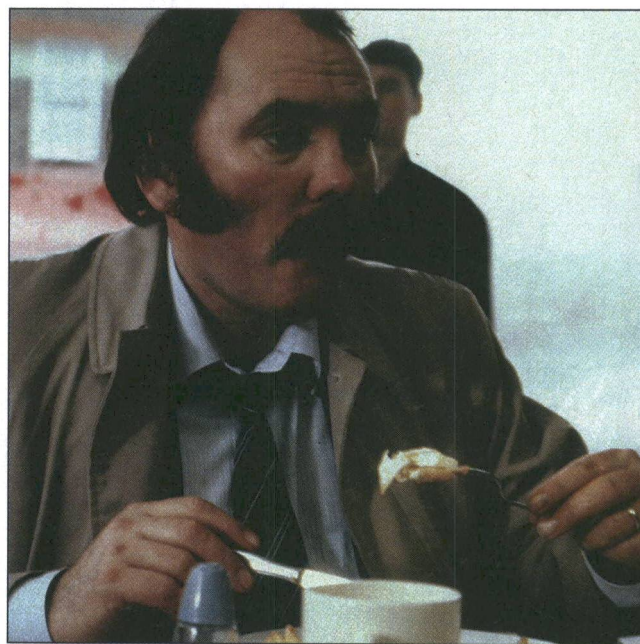

SEVERAL characters have come to sticky ends. PC Ken Melvin (actor Mark Powley, above) was blown up as he parked a booby-trapped car in 1990. PC Pete Ramsey (Nick Reding) was shot dead trying to stop Tosh Lines (Kevin Lloyd) from rescuing his wife and children from a bank besieged by robbers in 1989. ■

The Bill's scriptwriters can attend a 'police interrogation course' in which they pose as suspects - guilty or innocent - under interrogation by real officers.

The series' police advisor is Brian Hart, a former officer with 31 years of service. ■

Overweight,

When the makers of 'The Bill' issued a description of the man they were looking for to play DC 'Tosh' Lines, actor Kevin Lloyd was brought in for questioning. Not only did he look the part but he came from a family of policemen...

TOSH IS A tribute to my father,' actor Kevin Lloyd says of his portrayal of one of The Bill's best-loved characters.

Kevin was 21 when his father, a detective constable, was killed while dashing to a road accident that turned out to be a false alarm. 'I have actually had friends of my father ringing me to say that they had watched me as Tosh and been moved to tears because it was just like watching my Dad going about solving cases.'

His police-family background (his uncle and grandfather were also policemen) was one point in his favour in making such a popular success of DC Alfred 'Tosh' Lines. The other was his uncanny resemblance to the character the writers had outlined.

'They had created this character whose description in black and white was: DC Tosh Lines, late 30s, overweight, underpaid, can't pay his mortgage, wife, five kids, scruffy, one suit, couple of shirts and ties,' Kevin remembers.

'It fitted me to a T. They called me in to see them for the part and I got it.'

He even had five children at the time, though the youngsters now total seven.

The Bill
UK Gold weekdays
9.00am, 1.30pm,
10.00pm

Kevin was 'chuffed' to have won a part in a series that he admired. Tosh was also a character he clearly relished. 'He is widely reputed to be the best policeman in Sun Hill. He's got this real police nous. If they can't solve serious cases they go to Tosh and ask him what he feels about it.'

'He's the old-fashioned copper,' Kevin continues. 'He uses his instinct and he cares about peo-underpaid and scruffy – that's DC Tosh Lines!

ple. Burnside will do anything to nick anybody, whereas Tosh, if he believes someone is not guilty, he will go out of his way to prove they are not guilty.'

In his five years at Sun Hill Tosh has certainly won over the viewers.

Kevin says: 'Without being big-headed, Tosh is one of the public's favourites. They love him. I'm very fortunate.'

'I had an incident on a train when I was going home at about midnight at Leicester station. Two uniformed policemen were walking down the platform and I was leaning out of the window.

'One said to me: "Excuse me, sir, I'd like to have a word with you."

'I thought, What the hell have I done?

'This policeman produced a book and said, "Can you sign this to Margaret, please?"'

Kevin, who is 43, and his wife Lesley, live in Derbyshire with their magnificent seven. It has been known for Dad's work on The Bill to become a family affair.

'Three of my own children, James, Poppy and Henry, played three of Tosh's children, who were held hostage in a bank with my screen wife.

'The children took to being in The Bill like ducks to water. They were incredibly disciplined. Arriving one morning I said to them, "Let's go and have breakfast," and Henry, who was then eight, said, "No, Daddy, wardrobe first."

The latest addition to the Lloyd clan is two-year-old Eleanora, whom the family adopted to rescue from distressing neglect in a Romanian hospital.

Lesley is involved with a charity that helped children in Romania following the collapse of the totalitarian regime. After several fact-finding missions to the country in which she saw the privations of its children, Lesley suggested to Kevin and their family that they offer a home to a Romanian orphan. They voted enthusiastically in favour.

'We first saw Eleanora when she was five weeks old,' Kevin remembers. 'She'd never left the hospital. When we went back to do the adoption she was four months and one week old and she'd still not left this small hospital room with no lights.

'We took her out in the fresh air. It was extraordinary to see a child for the first time with wind in her hair as she saw grass and colours.'

Since it first trod the beat in 1984 The Bill has gone from strength to strength, from the seasons of one-hour weekly episodes, to the bi-weekly half-hour instalments and now on to the three-times-a-week helping on terrestrial TV.

'It has been an incredible success and exceeded everybody's wildest dreams,' says Kevin. He explains the success by the drama's believability.

'It is based on reality and people watching the telly like that. Miami Vice and all that lot are based on designer shirts and unreality.

'When my father was alive he thought Z Cars was the nearest thing to the police and The Bill is the natural progression from Z Cars.

'The Bill's characters don't always get it right, sometimes we make cock-ups and some characters don't go about the job in the right way. Some are more bullying than others.

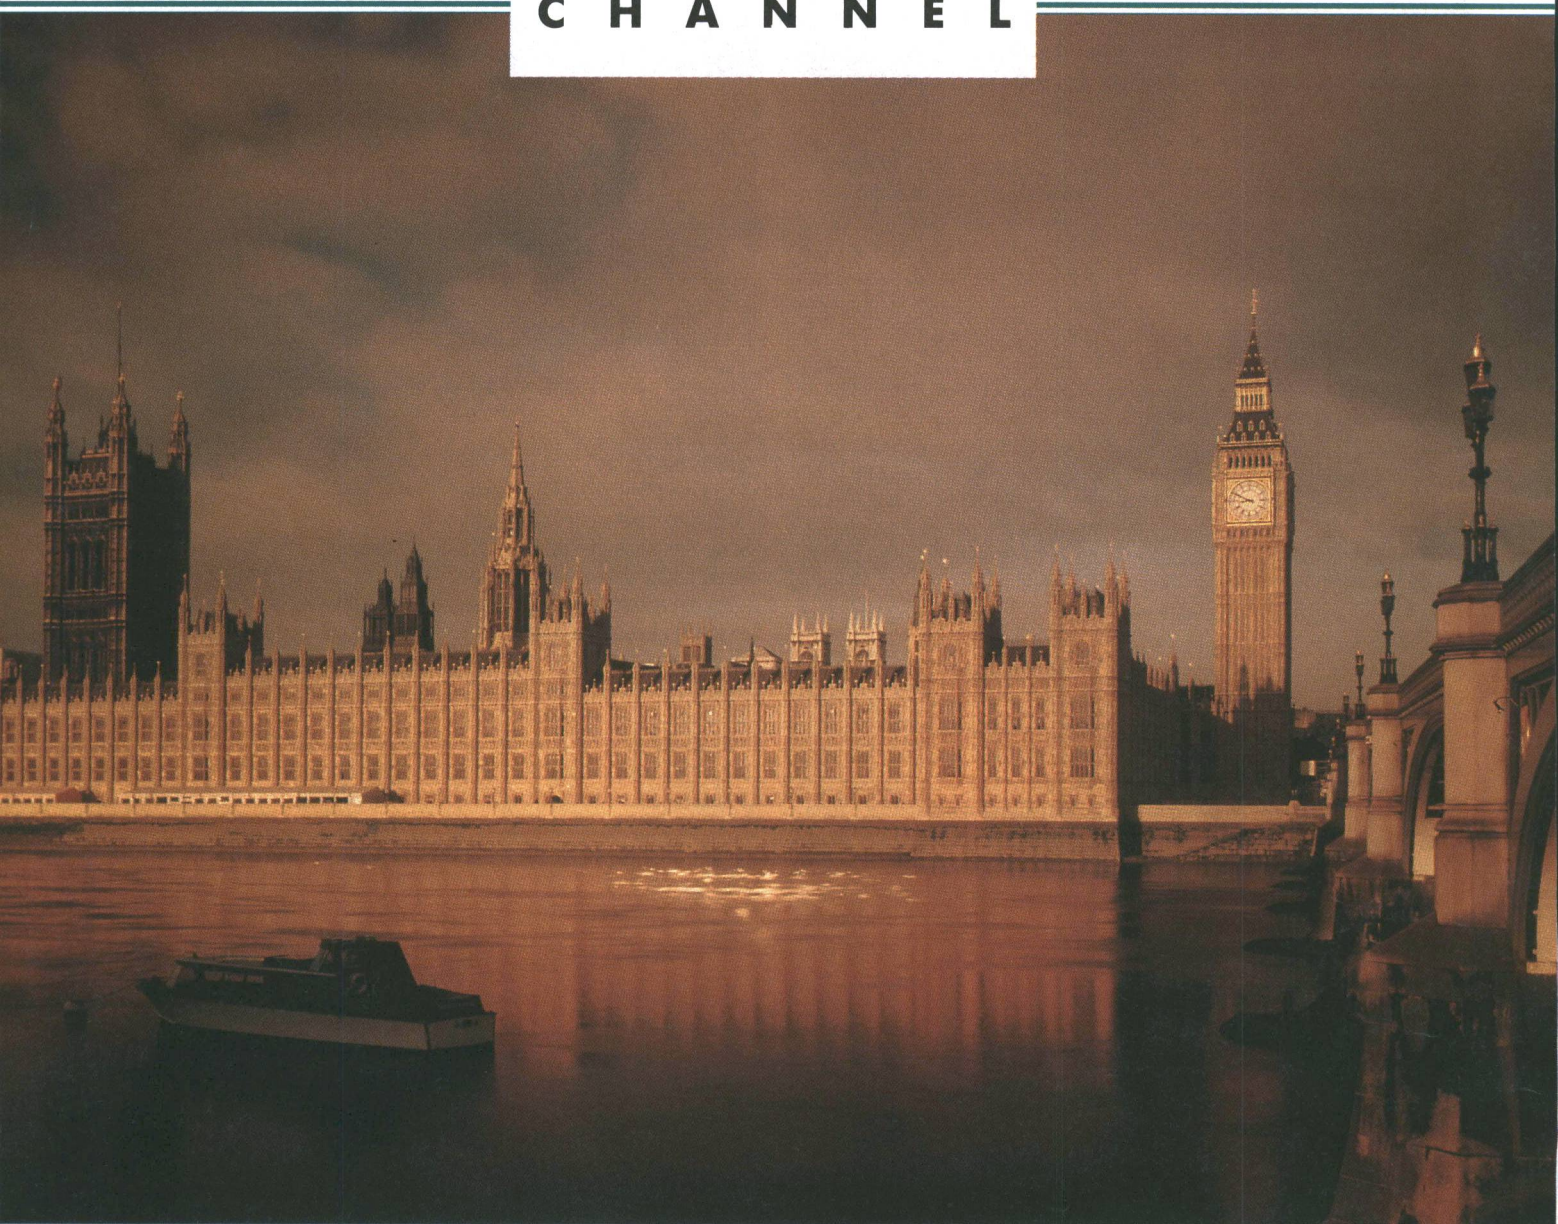

'Some coppers are better than others and that's how it is in the real force.' ■ ROBIN JAROSSE

Rough justice on Judgement Day!

Terminator 2: Judgement Day

Sky Movies Plus: Saturday
27th 10.00pm

TERMINATOR 2: JUDGEMENT DAY heads a list of devastating Arnold Schwarzenegger blockbusters that make up this month's Amiemania! season on Sky Movies Plus.

In the star's most recent hit (reportedly the biggest box office success of 1991, taking $112million in North American rentals alone), Arnie returns as the high-tech cyborg from the future, although his character has undergone a radical personality change from bad guy to hero since the 1984 original.

This time he must single-handedly protect a young boy and his mother, whose future will shape the world's destiny, from a seemingly indestructible foe.

Linda Hamilton and Edward Furlong also star in this thunderous, high-voltage action extravaganza, but it's the ground-breaking special effects that threaten to steal the show from superstar Arnie. After all, this was the most expensive production to date at a cost of $80-$100million!

Let Him Have It

Movie Channel
Sunday 28th 9.00pm

PETER MEDAK'S Let Him Have It brings a page from British criminal history to the screen in powerful and provocative fashion.

It tells the story of Derek Bentley, an 18-year-old with a low IQ, who is hanged for the roof top shooting of a policeman during a robbery in Croydon in 1952.

Although his accomplice, Craig, actually fired the fatal shot, but was under age and therefore 'too young to be executed', Bentley was sentenced to hang, despite an appeal, petitions from the public and a plea to the Queen.

Starring Chris Eccleston as Bentley and with Tom Courtenay, Tom Bell and Michael Gough in its cast, the film is a fine drama with a social conscience.

ALL-STAR ATTRACTIONS

Edward Scissorhands

Movie Channel
Sunday 7th 7.00pm

Edward Scissorhands stars two of today's most talented and attractive young actors - Johnny Depp and Winona Ryder. Edward is a pallid, sad-faced youth with a shock of black hair and 12-inch scissors-and-shears hands. Clumsy and grotesque, he looks how every teenager has felt at one point in their life.

Mitchum – acting with conviction!

For years Robert Mitchum held female audiences spell-bound with his rugged appearance and insolent, sleepy eyes. Bravo is screening four classic performances from his years with the equally classic RKO studios

▲ Robert Mitchum and Jane Russell

MOVIE MAKING was not Robert Mitchum's first career choice.

After working as a nightclub bouncer, promoter for a California astrologer, shoe shop clerk, ditch-digger, coal miner and drop hammer operator, he entered movies in 1943 as an extra and went on to play supporting roles in an assortment of war films, westerns, comedies and dramas.

His first success came with The Story of GI Joe in 1945 for which he was nominated for a best-supporting actor Oscar.

He resumed his screen career after military service in 1946 with the prestigious RKO studios, which had been one of Hollywood's big five studios and had produced classics like King Kong, Citizen Kane and later Fort Apache.

In the late 1940s the studio brought out a series of remarkable films noir, notably Crossfire, in which Mitchum starred in 1947.

Also starring Robert Ryan, Robert Young and Gloria Grahame, it was a tense, talky thriller shot entirely at night, and was the first Hollywood film to hit out at racial bigotry. Its reflection of the liberal views of director Edward Dmytryk and producer Adrian Scott would later result in their devastation by the anti-Communist hysteria that would soon sweep Tinseltown.

Build My Gallows High (1947) is another moody film noir, with plenty of snarling and a death-strewn climax, but more importantly it was Mitchum's first starring role.

In 1948 Howard Hughes acquired RKO, signifying the start of a downward spiral that would end with the studio ceasing production in 1953 and being sold to Lucille Ball's Desilu Productions.

By now immensely popular,

Mitchum found himself cast in a number of Hughes programmers, including His Kind of Woman (1951), in which he played opposite Hughes's new starlet Jane Russell. Also appearing was a fading, demented matinee idol riotously played by Vincent Price.

Angel Face (1952) was an outrageous yet endearing melodrama which sees Mitchum at his most nonchalant as a chauffeur set up for murder.

By 1954 he had left RKO after continual feuding with Hughes over his refusal to appear in the latter's increasingly eccentric projects.

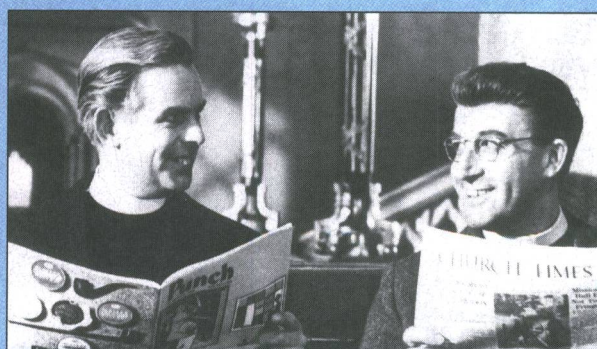

He went on to enjoy a catalogue of Hollywood successes, producing himself on several occasions, appearing in international productions and many TV series like Herman Wouk's long-running Winds of War.

Factoids about him are common: his sleepy eyes were caused by a combination of chronic insomnia and a boxing injury; he is renowned for his non-sense punctuality on the set; and, of course, there's the 1948 marijuana bust that cemented his credibility as an original tear-away. But the real Mitchum is an actor of talent who hides behind the pretence of carelessness, and whose ability to combine insolence with charm has produced some of cinema's truly memorable performances. ■

Peter Sellers double bill!

DON'T MISS two fine performances from one of Britain's most talented stars of comedy, Peter Sellers. In Heavens Above Sellers plays a northern parson who is appointed to a snobby village where he creates uproar. Also starring are British stalwarts Cecil Parker, Ian Carmichael, Irene Handl, Bernard Miles and Eric Sykes. In Only Two Can Play he plays an assistant librarian who has an affair with a councillor's wife, much to the chagrin of Richard Attenborough and John Le Mesurier.

Victoria

A vision of sweetness and innocence brought to life in a century-old tradition of dollmaking. Sculptured in fine bisque porcelain. Lovingly painted by hand.

Meet Victoria. A magnificent heirloom collector doll with a precious heritage. A vision of sweetness and innocence in pure white from head to toe. A gracious little lady beautifully dressed in her Sunday best.

Fine bisque porcelain lovingly hand-painted.

Every detail is perfect. Victoria's face is flawlessly sculptured and hand-painted to capture the soulful expression that made dolls of this era so irresistible. Her brown eyes are hand-set as they were long ago. Her dark, luxuriant curls are hand-styled in the fashion of the Victorian age.

Pristine white voile. Delicate lace. Shimmering faux pearls.

Her dress is sheer white voile with over a yard of lavish lace trim. With elegant pintucks, tiny faux pearl buttons and a hand-tied satin bow at the Empire waist. Even her delicate lace stockings and faux pearl-trimmed slippers reflect the opulence of an era gone by. Victoria. Just £125 payable in convenient monthly instalments. She is created by the award-winning artists of Franklin Heirloom Dolls and she will remain a treasure in centuries to come.

Heirloom collector's doll shown smaller than actual size of approximately 18½" (46.99 cm).

When installed, the PETROL BOOSTER surrounds the vehicles fuel line. Petrol entering into the engine becomes more volatile as it passes through the magnetic fields produced by the PETROL BOOSTER'S magnetic circuitry. These fields cause the petrol to disperse more evenly as it enters the combustion chamber. This gives rise to an increase in combustion efficiency in the combustion chamber, resulting in a more complete and efficient burn.

Gerry's jumping through hoops!

Queens Park Rangers' Gerry Francis tells 'Cable Guide' about the challenge of turning the super hoops into super champs

PEOPLE ASK ME if I enjoy management,' says Queens Park Rangers boss Gerry Francis. 'Well, I can't think of a worse word for it because there is one thing I don't do and that is enjoy it.

'You obviously get satisfaction,' he adds. 'What I like most is coaching the players because I like to try to make the players better.

'But sitting for an hour and a half banging your head on the dugout is not my idea of enjoyment. Management is 24-hours-a-day, seven-days-a-week pressure.

'I don't know anybody in football management that comes out looking young and I would like to have at least half of my hair still black when I leave it. It's a young man's game and I don't want to be doing it too long.'

It may not be fun but Francis has made a success of rejuvenating little-fancied clubs.

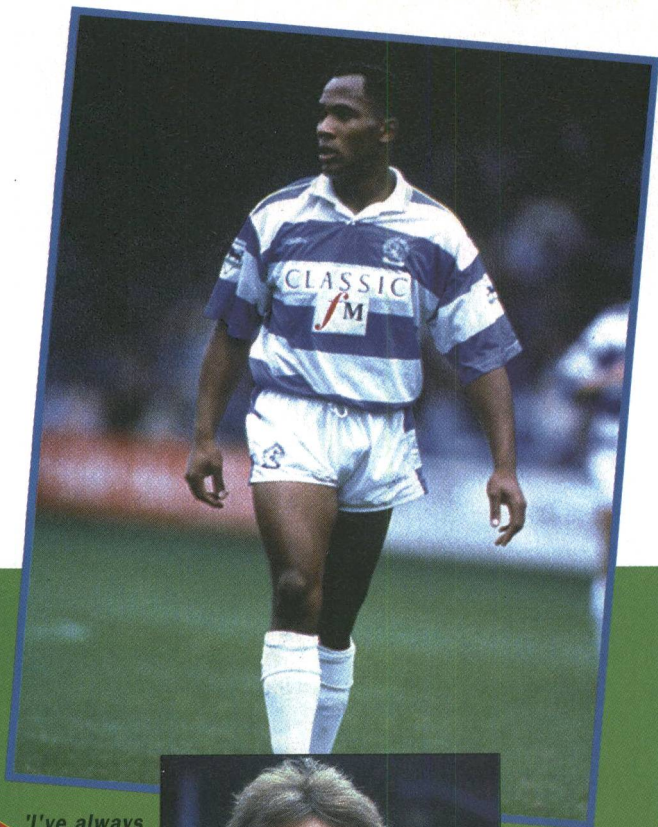

In four years at Bristol Rovers he took the team to eighth in Division 2 having previously won the Division 3 championship. He made the club £2 million after building a team for just £100,000.

When Rovers were denied planning permission for a new stadium Francis felt he had taken the club as far as he could and resigned.

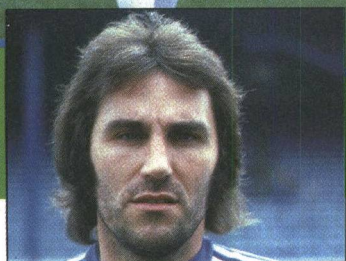

The former England skipper was ready to devote himself to his three companies, dealing in antiques, property and promotions.

▼ Ray Wilkins

► 'I've always been a winner,' says Gerry Francis

▲ Les Ferdinand

Then Rangers came along. He says: 'I'd supported them, I'd played for them. With all my love for the club it was the obvious choice.'

With his emphasis on consistency Francis propelled Rangers to some emphatic victories over last season's league front-runners Manchester United and Leeds and to the status of London's leading club for the early part of this Premier League season.

So could a club of modest means like Rangers or Norwich be champions?

'Look at statistics,' Francis says. 'In the last 16 years Liverpool have won it nine times, Arsenal twice, Leeds once, Everton twice and statistics say it is not feasible. Bookmakers say it is not feasible.'

'It's got harder for the so-called smaller teams to do it. Nothing's impossible. But the difference is that if I lost my two-to-three million pound-rated striker, I haven't got the money to replace him or a replacement in the reserves.'

As well as injuries, poaching is a problem. When opposing managers look greedily at your highly priced goal-getters, like Les Ferdinand, you must be prepared to start re-building all over again.

'If you had money you could perhaps bring success to a club more quickly because you could buy the finished article. I've had to get players from lower levels or non-league and make them into the finished article. That takes time.'

Whatever the obstacles, Francis is aiming high. The approach Liverpool took in conquering the League, FA Cup, League Cup and European Cup is his guiding light.

He has been impressed by the way Liverpool's players and managers never put themselves under pressure by making predictions of success. It follows that his stated aim is simply to finish higher than last season's 11th place.

'You have got to look at Liverpool and learn,' Francis explains. 'So what I am trying to do at QPR is build up strength in depth. That is difficult. As a manager I know I can't win anything without a squad. But as a player of 20 odd years, if I wasn't playing I would want to move on even if it meant moving to a lower division. Now if you are at Liverpool, Leeds or Man United you may not be in the first team but they can help you by giving you more money.'

Nevertheless, Rangers fans were heartened when Francis talked his star players into staying at Loftus Road this season.

He feels that probably his greatest achievement was to get the likes of restless Andy Sinton and Alan McDonald to sign new contracts. David Bardsley, Ray Wilkins, Clive Wilson, Darren Peacock, Les Ferdinand and Andrew Impey have all kept faith in Francis. 'But I had to finance those contracts by selling three-and-a-half million pounds worth of players,' he points out.

The demands of players' agents do not help. 'I don't see the players to negotiate contracts. You just get these strange little men coming in.'

'My milkman could make his deliveries and go out in the afternoon and be an agent,' Francis wants a governing body set up and recognised by the Premier League and the Professional Footballers' Association to regulate agents.

To mould Rangers into convincing championship contenders will take time, something managers are not always allowed. Yet as well as hanging on to his best players, Francis has improved the youth and reserve teams and instilled periods of consistency in the first team that has seen it beat the top sides.

'I've always been a winner,' Francis says. 'I remember some good footballing sides in my era: West Ham and Leicester were good sides but for many years they won little. QPR may have been a good footballing side but they haven't won a thing for 25 years.'

'I want my team to be a winner. I like to see attractive football but you've got to earn the right to play.'

Again there is Liverpool's example. 'All of the Liverpool sides I've played against and managed against have had that winning streak. Yes, you can play football when it is on, but you still have to battle.' ■ ROBIN JAROSSI

Indian winter

FEBRUARY IS a crucial month for all cricket fans. David Gower (below right) takes his place in the Sky commentary box to see if Graham Gooch can emulate him by winning a Test Series in India. The month swings into action on the morning of Sunday 31 January/Monday 1 February with live and exclusive coverage of the remaining two days from the First Test from Calcutta. Everyone will be watching closely to see how the skipper's leadership and form are following the breakdown of his marriage. If Gooch plays, Calcutta will mark his 100th Test appearance. This showdown could also mark the return of Mike Gatting to Test cricket.

Goal rush!

ENGLAND WILL be going for a goal-bonanza when they take on San Marino at Wembley on Wednesday 17th in a crucial World Cup Qualifier. This Football Extra kicks off live at 7.00pm on Sky Sports. With three points from two games, England are sitting, not altogether comfortably, second in the Group 2 table, although Taylor's men do have a game in hand over Holland who are also on three points. Only two Group 2 teams can go through to the World Cup Finals in the USA, so it is looking likely that goal difference could decide this group. Nothing but a hefty victory over San Marino will do for England. After a shaky start to their World Cup Campaign, when they scraped a 1-1 draw with Norway, England's last performance was a 4-0 stuffing for Turkey. Gazza, back to his dazzling creative best, scored twice.

THIS MONTH'S HIGHLIGHTS ON SKY

FEBRUARY 1993

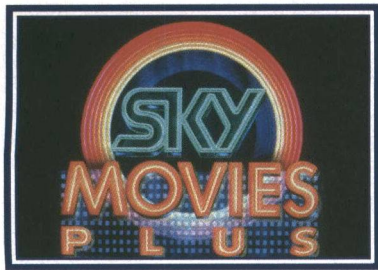

Andrew Morton's

Diana

Her True Story

The only drama based on Andrew Morton's acclaimed best-seller
Diana: Her True Story has its British TV premiere exclusively on SKY ONE.

IN FEBRUARY, SKY MOVIES PLUS PLAYS HOST TO ARNIEMANIA! a season of films starring one of the world's most popular screen stars, Arnold Schwarzenegger. The tribute to the actor culminates on Saturday 27th February with the British Television premiere of Terminator 2: Judgment Day, in which Schwarzenegger returns as the hi-tech killer cyborg from the future, this time sent to protect a young boy from assassination and an entire race from extinction.

Not only a sure-fire box-office attraction, Schwarzenegger has repeatedly proven himself a favourite with audiences of SKY MOVIES PLUS, starring in two of last year's Top Five highest-rated films.

Also premiering this month is gritty urban thriller Out For Justice, in which Steven Seagal plays Gino, a principled Brooklyn police officer who finds himself head-to-head with a gang of ruthless crack dealers, and a childhood adversary who has turned the peaceful Brooklyn streets of their youth into a battleground.

SKY MOVIES PLUS gives viewers the chance to see newcomer Jeff Speakman making an impressive debut in the martial arts hit The Perfect Weapon.

Last, but by no means least, Bruce Willis stars, alongside a wildly eclectic supporting cast including Richard E. Grant in the off-beat comedy-adventure Hudson Hawk. Willis plays a retired cat burglar fresh out of prison, determined to keep his paws clean. However he soon finds himself involved with two villains who have other ideas.

Marilyn Monroe stars in the SKY MOVIES GOLD premiere of Niagara, in which she plays a newly-married woman who plots to kill her husband as they honeymoon together at Niagara Falls.

Adam's Rib features Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn as married lawyers who find themselves opposing one another in a 'crime of passion' court case.

Vivien Leigh and Robert Taylor star in the SKY MOVIES GOLD Valentine movie Waterloo Bridge, a period drama about an Army officer who marries a ballerina, only to lose one another when he goes missing in action and she sinks into poverty.

THIS MONTH ON THE MOVIE CHANNEL, Johnny Depp stars in the premiere of Edward Scissorhands, a magical fairy-tale bursting with crazy invention and outlandish imagery. Depp plays the awkward, sad-faced youth, with 12 inch 'scissorhands', whose outer grotesque physicality, hides a sensitivity and innocence that Kim (Winona Ryder), a teen beauty queen slowly learns to love.

Michael Keaton and Leslie Nielsen make return appearances, this time in a pair of movie premieres that highlight two very different sides of law enforcement.

One Good Cop finds Michael Keaton as a New York City police detective who 'inherits' the three young daughters of his murdered partner. Together with his wife, Keaton must attempt to raise the children as best he can on a cop's salary. His only other option is to succumb to the corruption that tempts him everyday of his professional life.

The Naked Gun 2½: The Smell of Fear, finds the ever bumbling 'bad' cop Drebin (Leslie Nielsen) in another tale of crime-busting ineptitude, as he pits his wits against an energy expert with a fiendish plan for world domination.

On SKY MOVIES GOLD, Alan Parker directs the scorching 'true-life' drama, Midnight Express, about an American incarcerated in a hellish Turkish prison for drug offences.

John Cleese camps it up in the musical comedy Privates on Parade, about a song-and-dance troupe entertaining British soldiers in 1948 Singapore.

Another ex-'Python' Michael Palin stars as a clergyman who sets up a Mission for Fallen Women in the East End, in the comedy The Missionary.

FEBRUARY IS A CRUCIAL MONTH for all cricket fans. David Gower takes his place in the Sky commentary box to see if Graham Gooch can emulate him by winning a Test Series in India.

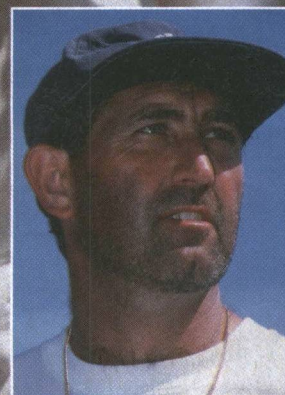

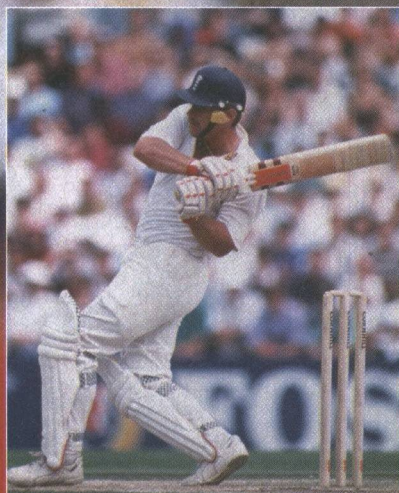

The month swings into action the morning of Sunday 31st January/Monday 1st February, with live and exclusive coverage of the remaining two days from the First Test in Calcutta. With their fanatical and partisan crowd, India is a notoriously difficult place to win, although on this occasion England are determined to secure a victory and consolidate their recent progress in World cricket. England have eight days to recover before they are back in action in the Second Test, which Sky will cover live ball-by-ball from Madras.

International sport continues when England go for a bumper goal-bonanza as they take on San Marino at Wembley in this important World Cup Qualifier. After a shaky start to their World Cup campaign when they could only scrape a 1-1 draw with Norway, England's last performance was impressive with Taylor's 'turnips' stuffing Turkey 4-0! Paul Gascoigne, back at his sparkling creative best and new boy Alan Shearer, will be looking for more of the same this month.

Throughout 1993, Sky Sports will bring you unrivalled coverage of over 40 live tournaments from the US PGA Tour, the richest and toughest tour in world golf. This month's live tournaments come from California.

The only mini-series based on Andrew Morton's best-seller Diana: Her True Story has its British premiere exclusively on SKY ONE this February.

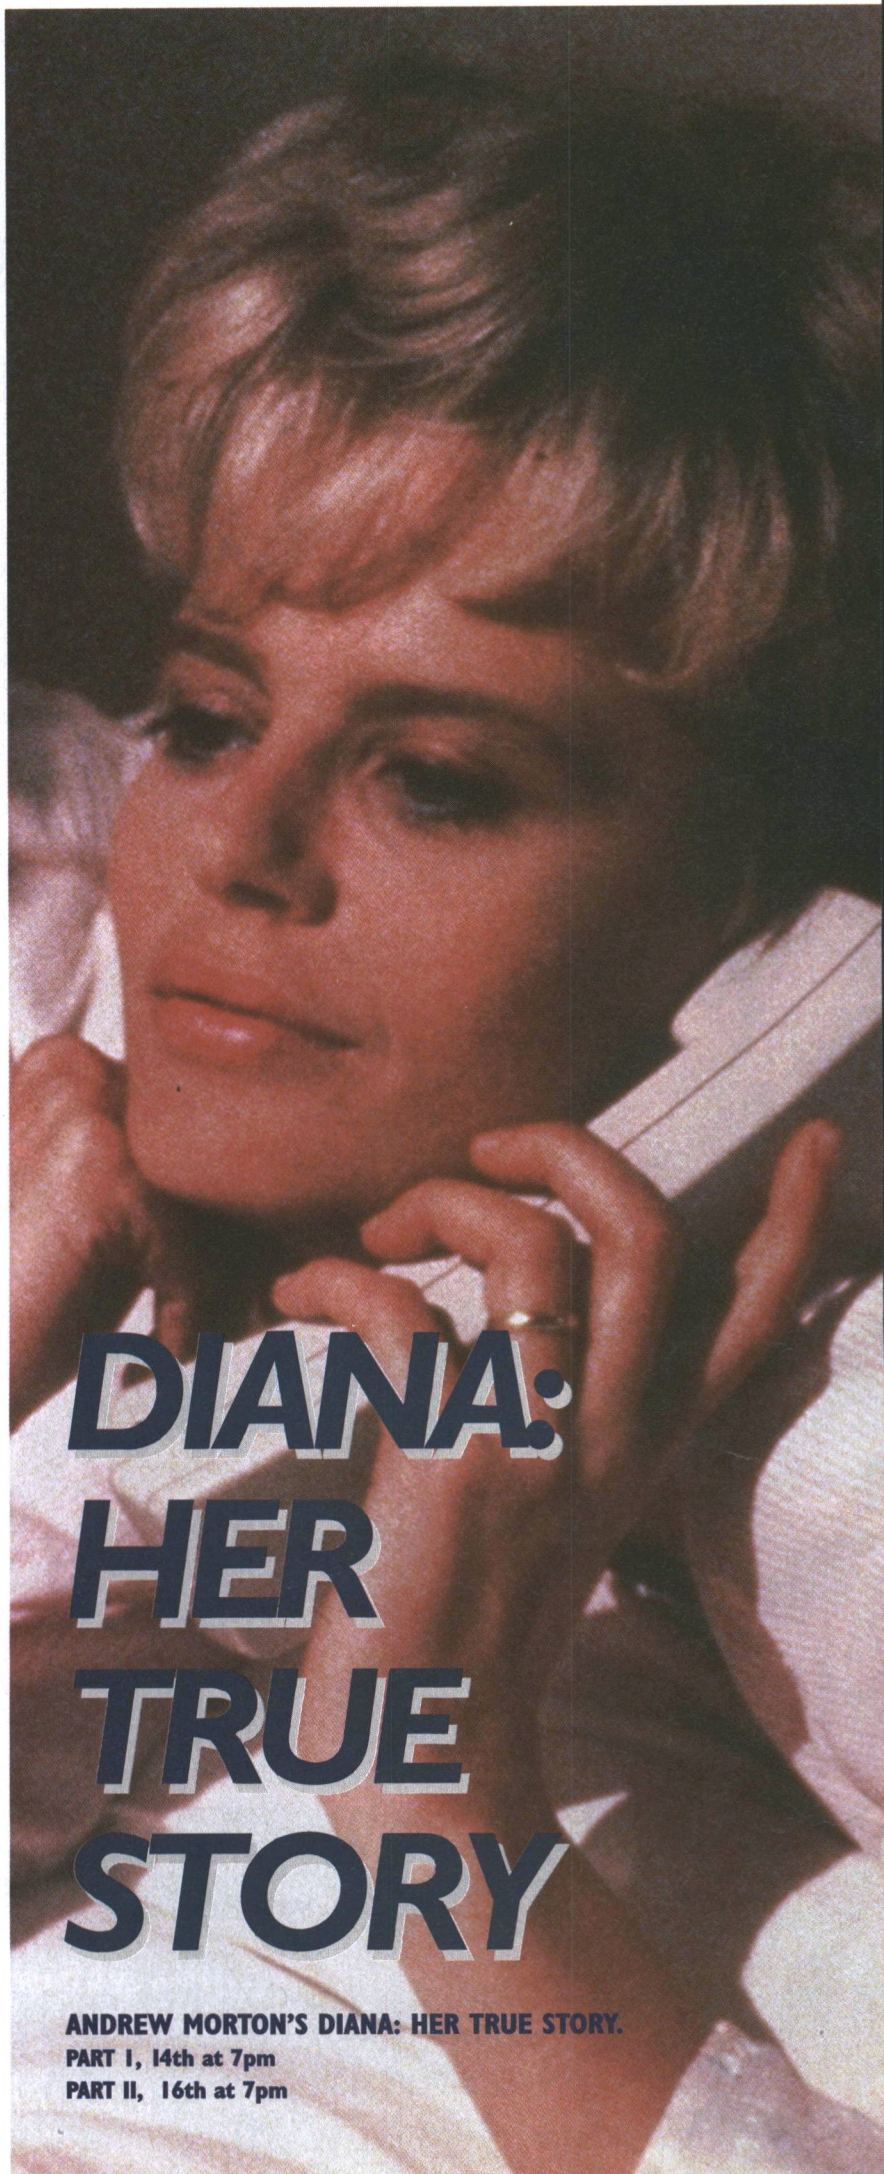

Already seen as the most authoritative film on the marriage problems of the Prince and Princess of Wales to date, television companies worldwide have been clamouring for the screening rights of this four hour drama. Morton recently said: "A vivid and sympathetic re-creation of the life and times of one of the most charismatic characters of the century, the mini-series captures the skittish enthusiasm of the young Diana and the compassionate dimension of her mature personality brilliantly. A marvellous achievement."

One of the most successful youth programmes of all time Beverly Hills 90210 continues throughout February. The first season gives SKY ONE viewers the chance to see every episode produced, with new output coming up in early 1994, all exclusive to Sky.

A group of talented but inexperienced young professionals balance their demanding careers with their complex personal lives in Round Table, a series set against the intense, fast-paced political and social landscape of Washington D.C.

Robert Duvall and Danny Glover star in Lonesome Dove, a colourful adventure series revolving around the exploits of two former Texas Rangers leading a cattle drive from Texas to Montana.

Test Match Cricket - Live

Sky Sports 6.30am, 9.00pm, 11.30pm

How will Gooch be coping with India's line-up? Any opposition that can call on the likes of Sachin Tendulkar are no light-weights. Last summer the 18 year old made history by being the first overseas player to be signed by Yorkshire. Very much the wonder kid of World cricket, the England ranks will hold no fear for this young man. At the other end of the spectrum, Kapil Dev, India's veteran all-rounder, could become the most prolific wicket-taker of all time during this series, beating Richard Hadley's long-standing record. Then there's the batting of Ravi Shastri, one of the few men in Test history to score a maximum 36 runs in an over.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Films A Bill of Divorcement

Bravo 8.00pm
In what Variety called 'The most potent tear-jerker in many a moon,' John Barrymore plays a middle-aged man who is released from a mental institution and has to get to know his wife and daughter again on his return home. Based on the play by Clemence Dane, this tender, emotional and intensely gripping movie is memorable as Katharine Hepburn's film debut. Also starring David Manners from the original Frankenstein and Billie Burke, best-remembered as Glinda the Good Witch from The Wizard of Oz and the wife of Topper.

General The Roux Brothers: Poultry and Game

The Learning Channel 1.00pm
Albert Roux talks about the variety of game found in the UK, and demonstrates the complete de-boning technique on a chicken, while Michel Roux gives roasting hints and carving advice for duck. Recipes on the programme include poussins stuffed with apple and calvados, and duckbreast with blackcurrants.

Sport The Club Show - Everton

Sky Sports 6.30pm
Only Liverpool and Arsenal have outshone the Toffeemen when it comes to winning the League Championship. Everton have been number one nine times to Liverpool's 18 and the Gunners' 10. So there will be a lot to pack in to this edition of The Club Show, what with FA Cup and European glories to relive as well.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Ship of Fools

The Movie Channel 7.00am
 A well-cast ensemble drama which tells the stories of a disparate group of characters who travel together on a German ocean liner in 1933. As the ship sails on a number of mini-dramas spring up, cleverly intertwining with each other as the film approaches its memorable climax. Based on Katharine Anne Porter's novel which was also the inspiration for the Doors song of the same name, the movie's cast includes Vivien Leigh, Simone Signoret, Oskar Werner, Jose Ferrer and Lee Marvin.

General Arrested Development Unplugged

MTV 9.30am

Arrested Development are a right-on kind of band fronted by writer-producer Speech, who thinks of AD's work as 'life music'. The band respects women, promotes family values and male responsibility, and have just released their debut album Three Years, Five Months and Two Days in the Life of . . . , which represents the time which passed between the formation of the group and the signing of their record agreement with Chrysalis. Their latest single People Everyday is a super-funky reggae reworking of the immortal Sly Stone classic Everyday People.

Sport Monday Night Football

Sky Sports 7.00pm
Leeds United v Manchester United. As the League Championship entered the final straight last season Man U were clear favourites over Leeds. More points and the odd game in hand suggested the title was at last headed for Old Trafford. But just when calm heads and steady nerves were needed the players in red got the collywobbles. Yet this season they are convincing front-runners again, which is more than can be said of Champions Leeds. Alex Ferguson's men have dominated teams without scoring commensurate goals this season. But they have a point to make tonight, as does former Elland Road favourite Eric Cantona.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Lonely in America

Sky Movies Plus 4.00pm
 A debut feature from Spike Lee's editor-of-choice Barry Alexander Brown, the film stars Ranjit Chowdry as Arun, a young Indian from New Delhi who comes to New York City hoping to lose himself and his ingrained cultural background in the big city melting pot. Initially staying with members of his extended family, and set up for a prearranged marriage, Arun breaks free for good when he moves into his office friend's 'love nest', allowing the idealistic 'fish out of water' the chance to live and love in his own idiosyncratic way.

General

The Wonderful World of Dogs

The Discovery Channel 4.00pm
 A chihuahua threatened by a dog-napping pelican, a poodle with a penchant for wearing women's clothes and a bulldog that headbutts the TV? It seems a dog's life is fuller and more bizarre than we could ever have imagined. And some owners have as many quirks and fetishes as their four-legged friends! This is a hilarious look at the lives of some very wacky woofers and their equally eccentric owners. The star of the show is Fugly, the most delinquent dog in Australian history, with more than 100 arrests on his record. His canine capers have cost his owner thousands of dollars in fines. There are those that love dogs and those who simply find them a menace and a nuisance. All of them have their say in The Wonderful World of Dogs.

Heavens Above!

Bravo 8.00pm

The quiet down-to-Earth Sellers is accidentally appointed to the Parish of Orbison Parva, a snobby and prosperous village, and from the moment he gives his first sermon all hell breaks out. A wickedly amusing satire on the life of the English clergy starring a host of British favourites including Cecil Parker, Isabel Jeans, and Eric Sykes. Directed by the Boulting Brothers.

General

Pure Cult Special

MTV 12.00midnight

The Cult are vocalist Ian Astbury and guitarist Billy Duffy, an eighties rock phenomena that was built to last. Pure Cult is their recently released compilation album, and features material that spans their career from early post-goth Spiritwalker through to the band's latest offering, an ambitious techno-come-retro stomp titled The Witch. In this MTV Special the heralded rock duo take us through their greatest hits - look out for the classic She Sells Sanctuary, a major UK hit in 1985 which is regarded by many as the rock song of the 1980s.

The Kill

HVC 10.00pm

After hitting the jackpot at a glamorous casino in the Orient, a womanising private eye is hired to recover a huge amount of money which was stolen from the casino after his departure. He is soon on the trail of the robber, a ruthless killer who needs the money to finance a heroin hijacking destined for a Hong Kong-based syndicate. Starring Richard Jaeckel and Henry Duval.

General

The House of Windsor

The Discovery Channel 5.00pm

The House of Windsor has survived for more than three-quarters of a century, through wars, economic and social revolution and tabloid scandals. But with the recent separation of Prince Charles and Princess Diana the future of the British monarchy is uncertain for the first time. This programme tells the story of the royal family from the creation of the House of Windsor in 1917 to Queen Elizabeth's 40th anniversary of accession in 1992. How have they coped with the inevitable problems of living in the public eye.

Sport

Swedish Ice Hockey Tournament

Screensport 3.00pm

The Swedish Ice Hockey Games is an annual tournament played at the Globe Arena in Stockholm. The event is now in its third year and has 4 teams participating. Those teams are the same as last year: Sweden, Canada, Czechoslovakia and Russia. These teams have traditionally been among the strongest nations in International Ice Hockey. Sweden are the reigning World Champions and have won this event for the last 2 years. The tournament is played in a league format with teams playing each other once. The team who finish at the top of the league after all the games is the winner.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Films Another Time, Another Place

The Movie Channel 5.05pm
 A romantic saga set against the backdrop of the Second World War about an American journalist, played by Lana Turner, who falls in love with Barry Sullivan's British war correspondent. When he is killed in action she journeys to his hometown, a small Cornish village, to visit the wife he left widowed. Also starring Glynnis Johns, Sean Connery and Sid James.

General School's Out

The Learning Channel 12.00noon
 This programme explores the reasons why a growing number of parents have chosen to opt out of the state education system and teach their children at home. For some state education is simply inadequate. Others object on religious grounds, and, for a small number, school is simply an emotional nightmare.

Sport World Professional Figure Skating 1989

Sky Sports 3.00pm
 The greatest names in ice-skating at the Capital Centre, Washington. The show includes Men's, Women's, Pairs and dance routines with some familiar faces on the ice. Look out for three-times World Figure-Skating Champion Scott Hamilton and his late 1980s rival Brian Boitano, 1986 Women's champion Debbie Thomas, and three-times Pairs Champs Valova and Vasilev of the USSR.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Films 'Til Murder Do Us Part

Sky Movies Plus 8.00pm

The last chance to see the provocative drama that tells the story of Betty Broderick (Meredith Baxter), a 'model wife' who helped foster both the career and social success of her attorney husband (Stephen Collins). However, when he leaves her for a younger woman (Michelle Johnson), dragging Betty through messy and humiliating divorce proceedings, her hurt and frustration boil over until only murder can provide an outlet. Directed by Dick Lowry.

General Unesco File

Super Channel 1.00pm

The third in a series of four documentaries from around the world that illustrate the work and ongoing projects of UNESCO, an organisation that aims to help communities help themselves in areas of education, infrastructure and health. UNESCO is well known for its work in restoration, and the current project at the long abandoned rock dugouts built by the early Christians at Cappadocia in Turkey is no exception. This film follows the planning of work and the experts brought in to supervise this important work.

One Good Cop

The Movie Channel 9.00pm
 A drama starring Michael Keaton as New York City police detective Artie Lewis whose world is shattered when his best friend and longtime partner Anthony LaPaglia is killed in the line of duty. Left in his care are the dead man's three orphaned daughters, a sudden familial burden that his meagre salary as a cop precludes him from supporting. However, unable to part with his friend's legacy, Lewis finds himself faced with an impossible dilemma; whether to remain a good cop or surrender to the corrupt ways of the street in order to keep his new family together.

General

The Simpsons

Sky One 6.00pm
 The Simpsons are Homer Simpson, the patriarch of the brood; his wife Marge, who sports a blue bee-hive hair-do; Bart, the obnoxious son; Lisa, the intelligent greenster of the family; and Maggie, the baby who does nothing but suck on her pacifier. Featuring the voices of Dan Castellaneta, Julie Kavner, Nancy Cartwright and Yearley Smith.

Sport

German League Football

Sky Sports 1.00am
 The German League returns after a long Christmas break. Peter Hutton presents the weekend's biggest fixture from the Bundesliga. Expert studio comment comes from Alan McInally of Scotland and Bayern Munich, and match commentary is by Ian Crocker.

A Kiss Before Dying

Sky Movies Plus 10.00pm
 If you can't trust your own husband who can you trust? Sean Young discovers the fatal charm of partner Matt Dillon when he reveals his true colours as a killer trying to inveigle his way into her rich and powerful family. A stylish chiller adapted from Ira Levin's novel, originally filmed in 1956. Also starring Max Von Sydow and Diane Ladd.

General Maude

Sky One 2.45pm
 Maude personified the new feminist of the 1970s when she came thundering on to TV screens in 1972. With her dominant personality, biting one-liners and masculine mannerisms, bra-burning Maude soon became a role model for women and a classic TV personality. Beatrice Arthur (The Golden Girls) stars as the formidable Maude.

Sport

Golf - Volvo PGA Moroccan Open Highlights

Screensport 10.30pm
 The Moroccan Open takes place at the Royal Dar-es-Salam Golf Club in Rabat. The course is recognised as one of the toughest on the European Tour. The tournament is worth more than £250,000 in prizemoney. English Ryder Cup player David Gilford won the event last year after a birdie at the 3rd extra hole of a playoff with Robert Karlsson.

Monday continues overleaf...

His Kind of Woman

Bravo 4.55pm

In 1948 Howard Hughes acquired the prestigious RKO Studios, signifying the start of a downward spiral that would end with the studio ceasing production in 1953 and being sold to Lucille Ball's Desilu Productions. It was during this period that the by now immensely popular Mitchum was cast in a number of Hughes programmers, including His Kind of Woman in which he played opposite Hughes's new starlet Jane Russell. The story finds him under threat of violence while attempting to get an exiled hoodlum back to the States for a payoff of $50,000. Other residents include a fortune-hunting girl (Russell) and a fading, demented matinee idol riotously played by Vincent Price.

The Club Show - Aston Villa

Sky Sports 6.30pm

Profile of 'The Villans'. The club was formed in 1873 by enthusiasts from the Villa Cross Wesleyan Chapel. Under the guidance of Scottish soccer enthusiast George Ramsay, Villa rapidly became one of the top ten clubs in the country. They turned professional in 1885 and were founding members of the Football League in 1888. In their 120-year history Aston Villa have managed to maintain a prominent place in English football. Despite difficulties over the past few years this season has seen the club back on form as top title contenders, getting spectacular results from their newly acquired striker Dean Saunders.

The Fox Affair

HVC 11.30pm

This story comes from deep within the Hong Kong underworld to the playgrounds of the rich and famous, from chauffeur-driven Rolls Royces to swinging nightclubs and violent streets. The story centres on two suave con-men who swindle a feared mob figure who then sends in the hitmen to retrieve their heads! Starring Kathryn Hood and Robert Bosco.

General

Not Waving but Drowning

The Learning Channel 12.00noon

In the 1980s personal borrowing in Britain reached an all-time high. Now more than two million families live with the worry of debts they cannot repay. This programme recreates the true story of one young family's struggle against multiple debt, giving us a unique insight into the practical problems and emotional traumas debt causes in modern life.

Sport

Motor Racing - IMSA Grand Prix of Miami

Screensport 7.30pm, 11.30pm

The Grand Prix of Miami is the second race of the 1993 IMSA GTP series, the motor racing series for prototype sportscars. This is a road course which was first raced in downtown Miami in 1983. It was the first ever IMSA event to be raced on the streets. The race moved to the new Bicentennial Park Circuit in 1986. The circuit only uses a small portion of the streets in downtown Miami, being mainly based in Bicentennial Park. The circuit is a twisting 1.87 mile track.

Thursday continues overleaf...

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Congratulations to December's £50 winner Miss T Hall of Staines, Middx

Doctor Who is the world's longest running sci-fi television series.

Since the very first episode, in November 1963, the Doctor's breathtaking adventures have enthralled viewers for three decades. Aided by his heroic companions, his crusade against the most evil forces in the universe has become legendary.

Now, for the first time ever, these fabulous characters are brought together in the unique "Doctor Who Chess Set". Brilliantly represented in solid pewter, this superb collection recreates the epic battles between good and evil – the intrepid Time Lord locked in combat with his most powerful foes.

Taking their places for this mighty encounter we present:

Heroes of the conflict

The Doctor, a Time Lord who left his planet Gallifrey to explore the farthest reaches of the universe.

K9, the electronic dog with a computerized brain.

Leela, the Doctor's assistant – a fearless warrior who would face the most formidable danger without a moment's hesitation.

The Tardis, the famous police call box used by the Doctor as his time machine.

The Doctor's infamous enemies

The Master, a renegade Time Lord who would stop at nothing to reach his goal – the total domination of time and space.

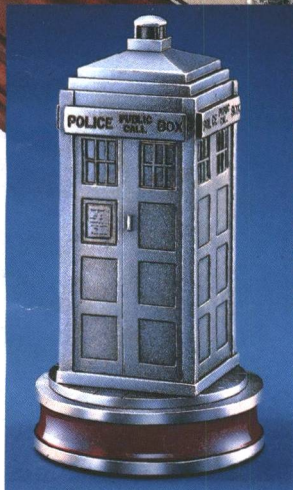

The Daleks, created by Davros in the laboratories of Skaro, became the most feared of the Doctor's enemies.

The Cybermen, metal robots with nothing

Elegant wooden chess board shown smaller than actual size of 18½ x 18½ x 3 inches. It contains your pieces when not in use.

The Doctor (King) – The Doctor in his fourth incarnation, the longest running TV Doctor to date. All seven Doctors are provided with the "Doctor Who Chess Set" to allow the King of your choice to be used in any game.

The Tardis (Doctor's Rook) – The police call box which transported the Doctor through time.

K9 (Doctor's Pawn) – The Doctor's electronic companion – a mechanical dog with a computerized brain.

Presenting the BBC

Meticulously crafted in fine pewter.

The complete cast of Doctors

During his dramatic expeditions through time and space, the Doctor has survived no less than six regenerations, appearing in seven different images. As part of this magnificent thirty-eight piece chess set we present all of these seven Doctors, recreated in exquisite detail, to delight the most avid Doctor Who fan.

Each mission can then commence with any King, chosen from these seven, as the defender of the universe.

Finely sculpted pewter

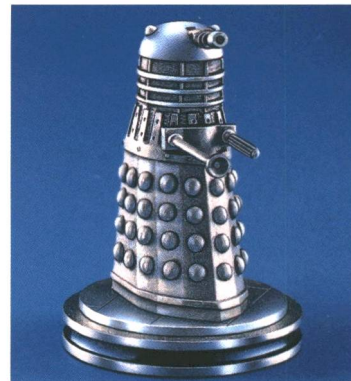

Each character in this superb set is expertly recreated in solid English pewter. The detail in each sculpture is magnificent.

This is truly a chess set to enjoy – both as a game and as a work of art.

Elegant craftsman-made playing board

To complement your chess set, you will receive a handsome playing board at no extra cost. Crafted from carefully selected woods, it also contains each of the thirty-eight pieces in its own lined compartment.

In addition, every subscriber will receive a booklet which provides fascinating information about each character in the set.

The Dalek (Black Pawn) – The most infamous and evil of all the Doctor's foes.

How to subscribe

The "Doctor Who Chess Set" is a triumph of craftsmanship available only by direct subscription to Danbury Mint.

As a subscriber you will receive two pieces every other month. However, for convenience you may pay at the rate of one piece per month.

The price is remarkably affordable at just £15.45 (plus p&p) per piece. In addition, the playing board and booklet are provided at no extra charge.

The Best-Selling Car of All Time!

Introducing the First and Only Official
Die-Cast Replica of the Most Popular Car Ever –
The Classic Volkswagen Beetle.

of 6 5/8" (16.83 cm) L. Scale 1:24.

Remember when half the cars on the road seemed to be Volkswagens? Well now, you can own one again!

In the first and only official die-cast replica. Authorised and authenticated by Volkswagen.

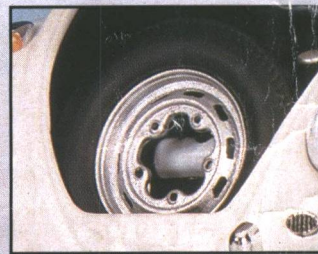

Just like the original, it's one of life's great pleasures. A small wonder of precision, fine craftsmanship and incredible detail.

In the boot at the front are the spare wheel and washer reservoir. Under the rear bonnet you'll find the air-cooled 53 hp engine. Each reclining soft front seat has its own release lever. You can even examine the thumb buttons on the door handles!

It was the best-selling car ever. The perfect blend of quality and value. The "bug" you could love!

This impressive die-cast replica is the perfect tribute. Just £75, payable in convenient monthly instalments. Exclusively from Franklin Mint Precision Models.
